2nd December 2021

To:- Grand Secretaries : District Grand Secretaries : Chapter Secretaries

Dear Sisters and Brothers

ADMINISTRATIVE WORTHY GRAND OFFICE-BEARERS, 2022 - 2024

In accordance with the provisions of Law U.9(h), for the Eighteenth Session in June 2022, I hereby call for applications for the Offices of:-

Worthy Grand Secretary	Worthy Grand Treasurer
Worthy Grand Registrar	Worthy Grand Organist
Worthy Grand Supplies Officer	Worthy Grand Sessions Co-ordinator
Assistant to the Worthy Grand Secretary	Assistant to the Worthy Grand Treasurer
	Assistant to the Worthy Grand Organist

At the time of writing it is not my intention to continue as Worthy Grand Secretary due to the health issues of both my husband, Brother George Taylor PMWGP and myself.

APPOINTMENT AS A WORTHY GRAND POINT

Any Sister who wishes to be considered for appointment as a Worthy Grand Point for the 2022-2024 term and who has attained the rank of Worthy Matron or Past Worthy Matron should forward her name and address, together with details of herself and, in particular, her Order of the Eastern Star history, direct to the Worthy Grand Associate Matron:

Mrs Robyn Reily
12 Kimber Crescent
NORWEST. N.S.W. 2153

The duties of Worthy Grand Points are to attend the Biennial Sessions and any Special Session of the United Grand Chapter, as well as meetings of the United Grand Committee held on the last day of the Session, Sunday, 19 June 2022, Mid-term meetings and on days to be determined prior to the commencement of the next Biennial Session; to respond to any matters dealt with by correspondence by the stipulated date; and to attend, where possible, visits accepted by the United Grand Chapter. In this regard, while the Most Worthy Grand Matron and Most Worthy Grand Patron are always happy to have their company, Worthy Grand Points are not expected to attend all visits as they are made in all States. Worthy Grand Points, by request of the Most Worthy Grand Matron or Most Worthy Grand Patron, also act as Worthy Grand Marshal at visits, in the absence of that Worthy Grand Office-bearer. Of course, should a new Chapter be instituted in Tasmania, South Australia or Western Australia, the Worthy Grand Office-bearers participate in the ceremonies. Members who are appointed to these positions must also be prepared to learn both the opening charge and the initiation charge for their Point as they may be called upon at the most unexpected time to fulfil the office at any Chapter meeting where they may be in attendance.

As a number of Chapters are in recess during January, applications for all the above positions, stating the Applicant's appropriate qualifications, should be forwarded to reach me by Monday, 28 February 2022.

UNITED GRAND CHAPTER CHOIR

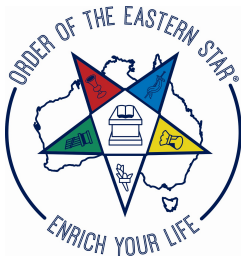

As was mentioned in the Report from the 2021 Mid-Term Session, expressions of interest were called from Members willing to put their names forward for the United Grand Chapter Choir during the period of the Sydney Session in June 2022. To date the Worthy Grand Organist Sister Gillian Mason has had no response to this request which may be due to the continuing Covid-19 Pandemic restrictions. That being the case Sister Gillian Mason is willing to extend the time for submitting names until Monday, 31st January 2022. She can be contacted by Mobile - 0400 412 828 or Email – 8085thebest@gmail.com. Please let her know as soon as possible of your willingness to be a Member of the United Grand Chapter Choir. If we do not have the United Grand Chapter Choir there will be no musical interludes during our Session.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sisters and Brothers

ADMINISTRATIVE WORTHY GRAND OFFICE-BEARERS, 2022 - 2024

In accordance with the provisions of Law U.9(h), for the Eighteenth Session in June 2022, I hereby call for applications for the Offices of:-

Worthy Grand Secretary	Worthy Grand Treasurer
Worthy Grand Registrar	Worthy Grand Organist
Worthy Grand Supplies Officer	Worthy Grand Sessions Co-ordinator
Assistant to the Worthy Grand Secretary	Assistant to the Worthy Grand Treasurer
	Assistant to the Worthy Grand Organist

At the time of writing it is not my intention to continue as Worthy Grand Secretary due to the health issues of both my husband, Brother George Taylor PMWGP and myself.

APPOINTMENT AS A WORTHY GRAND POINT

Any Sister who wishes to be considered for appointment as a Worthy Grand Point for the 2022-2024 term and who has attained the rank of Worthy Matron or Past Worthy Matron should forward her name and address, together with details of herself and, in particular, her Order of the Eastern Star history, direct to the Worthy Grand Associate Matron:

Mrs Robyn Reily
12 Kimber Crescent
NORWEST. N.S.W. 2153

The duties of Worthy Grand Points are to attend the Biennial Sessions and any Special Session of the United Grand Chapter, as well as meetings of the United Grand Committee held on the last day of the Session, Sunday, 19 June 2022, Mid-term meetings and on days to be determined prior to the commencement of the next Biennial Session; to respond to any matters dealt with by correspondence by the stipulated date; and to attend, where possible, visits accepted by the United Grand Chapter. In this regard, while the Most Worthy Grand Matron and Most Worthy Grand Patron are always happy to have their company, Worthy Grand Points are not expected to attend all visits as they are made in all States. Worthy Grand Points, by request of the Most Worthy Grand Matron or Most Worthy Grand Patron, also act as Worthy Grand Marshal at visits, in the absence of that Worthy Grand Office-bearer. Of course, should a new Chapter be instituted in Tasmania, South Australia or Western Australia, the Worthy Grand Office-bearers participate in the ceremonies. Members who are appointed to these positions must also be prepared to learn both the opening charge and the initiation charge for their Point as they may be called upon at the most unexpected time to fulfil the office at any Chapter meeting where they may be in attendance.

As a number of Chapters are in recess during January, applications for all the above positions, stating the Applicant's appropriate qualifications, should be forwarded to reach me by Monday, 28 February 2022.

UNITED GRAND CHAPTER CHOIR

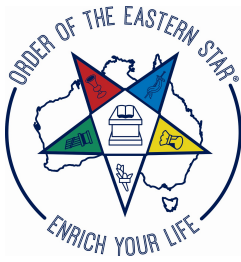

As was mentioned in the Report from the 2021 Mid-Term Session, expressions of interest were called from Members willing to put their names forward for the United Grand Chapter Choir during the period of the Sydney Session in June 2022. To date the Worthy Grand Organist Sister Gillian Mason has had no response to this request which may be due to the continuing Covid-19 Pandemic restrictions. That being the case Sister Gillian Mason is willing to extend the time for submitting names until Monday, 31st January 2022. She can be contacted by Mobile - 0400 412 828 or Email – 8085thebest@gmail.com. Please let her know as soon as possible of your willingness to be a Member of the United Grand Chapter Choir. If we do not have the United Grand Chapter Choir there will be no musical interludes during our Session.

Yours sincerely

Elizabeth Taylor

At the time of writing it is not my intention to continue as Worthy Grand Secretary due to the health issues of both my husband, Brother George Taylor PMWGP and myself.

APPOINTMENT AS A WORTHY GRAND POINT

Any Sister who wishes to be considered for appointment as a Worthy Grand Point for the 2022-2024 term and who has attained the rank of Worthy Matron or Past Worthy Matron should forward her name and address, together with details of herself and, in particular, her Order of the Eastern Star history, direct to the Worthy Grand Associate Matron:

Mrs Robyn Reily
12 Kimber Crescent
NORWEST. N.S.W. 2153

The duties of Worthy Grand Points are to attend the Biennial Sessions and any Special Session of the United Grand Chapter, as well as meetings of the United Grand Committee held on the last day of the Session, Sunday, 19 June 2022, Mid-term meetings and on days to be determined prior to the commencement of the next Biennial Session; to respond to any matters dealt with by correspondence by the stipulated date; and to attend, where possible, visits accepted by the United Grand Chapter. In this regard, while the Most Worthy Grand Matron and Most Worthy Grand Patron are always happy to have their company, Worthy Grand Points are not expected to attend all visits as they are made in all States. Worthy Grand Points, by request of the Most Worthy Grand Matron or Most Worthy Grand Patron, also act as Worthy Grand Marshal at visits, in the absence of that Worthy Grand Office-bearer. Of course, should a new Chapter be instituted in Tasmania, South Australia or Western Australia, the Worthy Grand Office-bearers participate in the ceremonies. Members who are appointed to these positions must also be prepared to learn both the opening charge and the initiation charge for their Point as they may be called upon at the most unexpected time to fulfil the office at any Chapter meeting where they may be in attendance.

As a number of Chapters are in recess during January, applications for all the above positions, stating the Applicant's appropriate qualifications, should be forwarded to reach me by Monday, 28 February 2022.

UNITED GRAND CHAPTER CHOIR

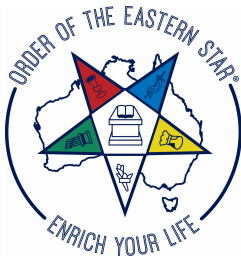

As was mentioned in the Report from the 2021 Mid-Term Session, expressions of interest were called from Members willing to put their names forward for the United Grand Chapter Choir during the period of the Sydney Session in June 2022. To date the Worthy Grand Organist Sister Gillian Mason has had no response to this request which may be due to the continuing Covid-19 Pandemic restrictions. That being the case Sister Gillian Mason is willing to extend the time for submitting names until Monday, 31st January 2022. She can be contacted by Mobile - 0400 412 828 or Email – 8085thebest@gmail.com. Please let her know as soon as possible of your willingness to be a Member of the United Grand Chapter Choir. If we do not have the United Grand Chapter Choir there will be no musical interludes during our Session.

Yours sincerely
